God. Because this sense of clinging to one another is not from one spouse to another, it is from God to us, and if we respond to the leading of Gods Holy Spirit, from us to God. The God who has created us is a God of relationality and relationship. Think about how God has revealed Himself: as trinity. Father, Son, Holy Spirit.

Focus on who God is. Focus on His attributes and that He is a great, powerful God, even when we are very small and weak. Listen to praise and worship music. It will minister to your heart and soul and help you enter into prayer and to experience the presence of God. Worship is also spiritual warfare.

Clinging to God in Difficult Times - The Life

The word "cling" in this verse is translated "hold fast" or "cleave" in Genesis 2:24, where God says a man should leave his father and mother and "cleave" to his wife (compare its use in Deut. 10:20-21; 11:22; and 13:4).

God nevertheless blesses Jacob, so much that Jacob in the end acknowledges that all he owns has come from God, not from his own intelligence and deceit. This is an important step along the way to Jacobâ€™s becoming man of God â€œ but he is not saved yet.

True Faith: Clinging to God: A Sermon on Genesis 32

God does not cling, or as it is well said in the Chronicles of Narnia, Aslan is not a tame lion. Frankly, I think it is because of this last reason that today we have drifted from the usage of this word.
